1942 RHODODENDRON

ANNUAL OF
APPALACHIAN STATE
TEACHERS COLLEGE
BOONE, NORTH CAROLINA

TO MISS STEED—

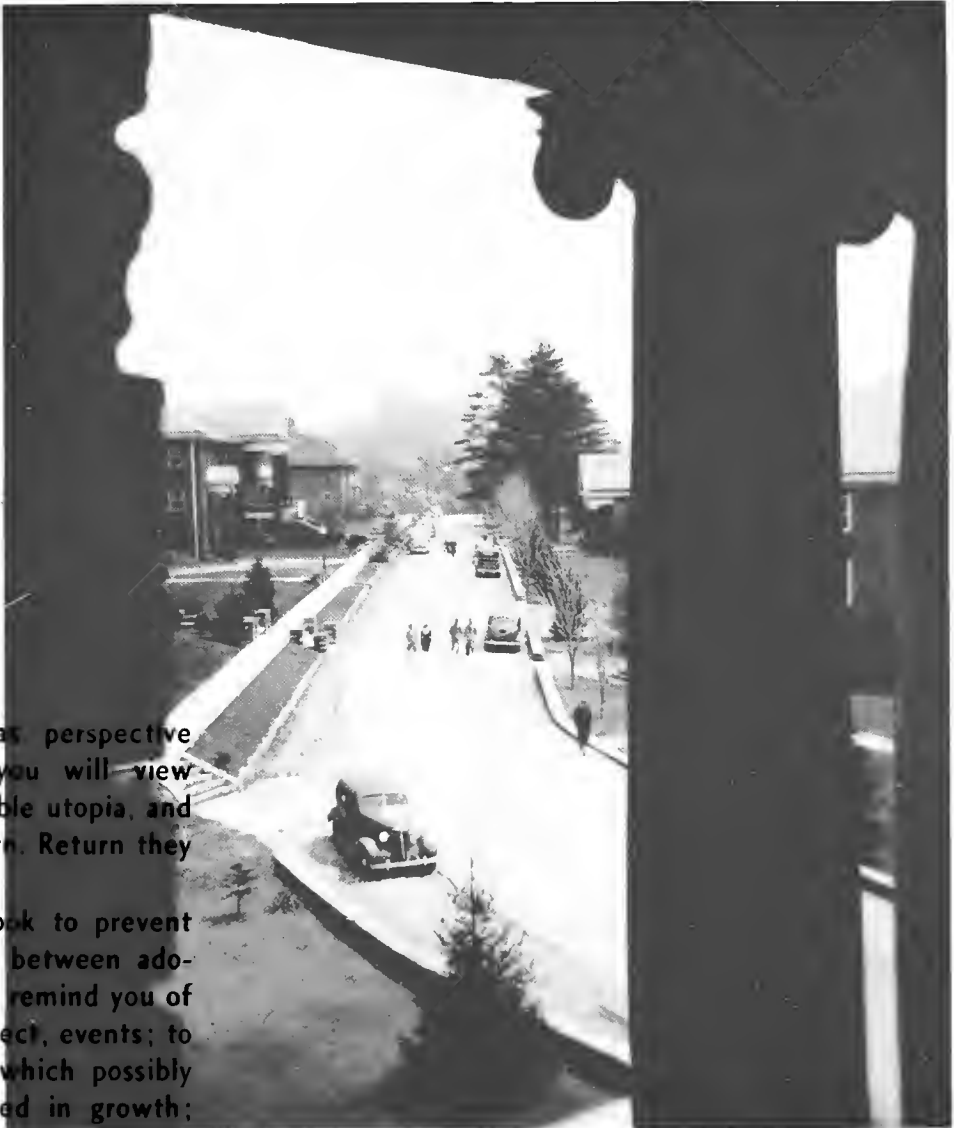

Teacher, coach, and gracious lady. For years unselfishly dedicated to building a school "spirit" and moulding lives of others in her unassuming and quiet way; for integrity, for intelligence, and for

DEDICATION

nobility of character; for accomplishments of mind and spirit, we, the Senior Class, dedicate this our 1942

Rhododendron.

Enchantment increases as perspective broadens. In later years you will view your college days as a veritable utopia, and perhaps yearn for their return. Return they will not . . . cannot.

We hope through our book to prevent your idealizing this "period between adolescence and adulthood"; to remind you of interesting, if not quite perfect, events; to bring to mind experiences which possibly caused you pain but resulted in growth;

FOREWORD

and to inspire memories of pleasant happenings without bringing regret for their passing. Thus may you have at the same time an integrated present and delightful recollections of hours at Appalachian. So, we give you the "Rhododendron" of nineteen hundred and forty-two.

We present a picture
of our school - everyday life -
our study
and ...

those things

we hold so
dear as ...

we go out
into life ...

*this - that
and the other.
bookroom
snacks*

*athletic contests
plays .. elections and

We hope you like it!

OUR ALMA MATER

CHERISHED VISIONS OF THE SOUTHLANDS.

Truly a land of visions. The merry laughter of gay co-eds, the bright sunshine after a sudden rain.

ALMA MATER IN THE HILLS.—

Rolling hills; tall, majestic guardians making good their silent promise to watch protectively over the carefree students sheltered in the valley.

THOU DOST POINT OUR MINDS TO WISDOM.

Youth, seeking the fountain of knowledge, that they, like the mountains, may serve as guardians to a future generation of childhood.

TILL THE TRUTH OUR SPIRIT THRILLS.

Truth, the foundation of all that is clean and fine, truth a basis for everlasting loyalty to our Alma Mater.

TEACHERS COLLEGE, APPALACHIAN.

More than just a school—the seat of friendship, where strangers are unknown, where friendships spread and sportsmanship prevails.

OF OUR HEARTS THE JOY AND PRIDE:

A special part of the heart remains at Appalachian. Like the prodigal son, one always returns, and finds happy memories—with the sad ones ever retreating.

LEAD US EVER, LEAD US ONWARD.

Yes, do! Be an incentive to greatness, of which we have dreamed for long.

VANGUARD OF THE HERO'S SIDE.

As life envelops us may we become heroes, finding no cause for retreat, no blemish to mar our record. May we be a credit to you, our Alma Mater—vanguard of the hero's side.

But I like, that you're really an O.K.
guy even if I have conceived the opposite. You & Thelma oughta get together. It has, though, been a lot of fun, as well as a work
week. I never dream a wild
